

BBC NEWS SCHOOL REPORT

England fans will face safety problems at the world cup in Russia?

Tickets selling at the world cup in Russia

England fans have applied for 26,670 tickets, this week. Fifa opened a new ticket window which had 2,700 applications from England.

Why people think the World cup need to hold in different country?

A welsh Labour MP has said The 2018 World cup in Russia should be delayed or held in a different country after the russian agent poisoned.

The logo for BBC News School Report is displayed on a dark red background. It features the BBC logo at the top, followed by the word 'NEWS' in a smaller font, and 'SCHOOL REPORT' in a large, bold, white font.

BBC
NEWS
SCHOOL
REPORT

What did the government do?

Yesterday, Prime Minister Theresa May confirmed no government minister or royal family member will be attending to world cup in Russia.

How did government do to protect the England fans?

Mrs May said the government would examine ways of protecting fans travelling to the World Cup in Russia. England fans have been warned their safety maybe compromised at the World Cup.